CLOAKMAKERS STRIKE BACK

Locked-Out Employees Turn the Tables on Their Employers.

An Army of 10,000 Make an Unexpected Attack,

Fully 10,000 contractors, cutters, open tors and other employees in the cloak trade are not working in this city to-day on account of the strike of twenty-six outters at Meyer Jonnasson & Co. 's shop.

The strike is the result of a united demand of the cutters and cloakmakers for a fixed rate of payment for tailoring, to be agreed on by the manufacturers, contractor and tailors, and that the cloakmakers should ecome union men. Meyer Jonasson & Co. were first assailed as being the most vulnerable firm. They appealed to and were sustained by the Cloak Manufacturers' Association, who determined hat they would not submit to the dictation, as they call it, of their employees, and on Saturday locked out the 125 union cutters

The firms belonging to the Manufacturers' Association, and who have locked out their Union employees, are A. Friedlander & Co., of 472 Broadway; Meyer Jonasson & Co. 358 Broadway; Lewis Grauer & Co., 477 Broadway; Benjamin & Caspary, 465 Brooms street; Wuerzberger & Goldsmith, 472 Broadway; G. Schwab & Bros., 452 Broadway; Blumenthal Bros., 452 Broadway; Popkin & Marks, 470 Broadway; Julius Stein & Co., 507 Broadway, and Goldman Bros., 101 Greene street,

These manufacturers were to-day surprised to learn that the tables had been turned upon them and that they themselves were now the locked-out parties, as the result of an amaignmation of employees of the trade to aid their previously locked-out fellow craftemen.

This armalgamation consists of the Executive Boards of the Cloak and Silk Cutters' Association, the Dress and Cloak Contractors and the Operators and Cloak Contractors and the Operators and Cloak Contractors and the Operators and Cloak Contractors and the Company of the Contractors and the Operators and Cloak Contractors and the Company of the Executive Boards of the Cloak and Silk Cutters' Association, the Dress and Cloak Contractors and the Company of the Executive Board, of which Arthur H. The combined Executive Board, of which Arthur H. Dale is Chairman, met this morning and decided to as once deliver to Albert Blumenthal, Chairman of the Manufacturers' Executive Board, a copy of an agreement drawn up and adopted by the three amaignamated bodies.

This surreement provides that the members of three organizations represented refuse to work for any of the firms in the 'combine,' as the Manufacturers' Association is styled, or for any manufacturer who employs non-union men.

scalion will not be recognized as an association.

Any violation of the agreement by either of the amalgamated bodies will entail a fine of $5.00 for such violation.

The agreement went into effect to-day and inconsequence the locking-out manufacturers are themselves locked-out by, 10,000 hands, over 4,000 finishers joining the unemployed forces from lack of work.

Five hundred locked-out and locking-out employees met at Pythagoras Hall this morning and informally discussed the situation. All action in the matter was left with the Amalgamated Executive Board.

Said Dion W. Burke, a member of the Board and Secretary of the Cloak and Slik Cutters' Association, to an Evening World
reporter:

The trouble will probably last three or four days, but we are confident of success.

four days, but we are confident of success. The busy season is upon the manufacturers and they cannot help but yield or suffer great pecuniary less.

"All work taken by contractors Saturday will be returned to the manufacturers to day unfinished, and for every day the lock-cut continues it will cost the firms $1.000 a day."

Said another member of the Board, who is ting in sympathy with men who are worse acting in sympathy with men who are worse than alaves.

"The manufacturers, at a conference last week, called these men the seum and off-securing of Russia," and yet they themselves brought these very men here to try and supplant our places.

"Now that they have brought these men here they must pay them decent!, The only difference between these poor, lecked out Russians and their aristocratic employers is in the length of their pocketbooks."

To an Events World reporter Chairman Albert Blumenthal, of the Manufacturers Executive Board, said:

"Thave not yet received any communication regarding the looking out of the manufacturers, but if such is the fact all that remains for us to do is to get more non-union men.

"We have ne objection to union men be-we have no objection to union men be-cause they are union men, but because they attempt to tell us whom we shall and whom we shall not employ.

"The busy season is upon us, it is true, but we can get all the non-union help we want and I do not anticipate that trade will te at all crippled."

The policeman denied it. The Chief sent the whole matter to be disposed of in the police court, depriving the policeman of the insignia of his office while he stands accused of a disgraceful crime.

Donovan was taken to the Tombs at 11 oclock by Capt, Meakim. He is a tail, well built good-looking young man who sported high curling side whiskers and mustacles.

When arraigned before Judge McMahon he trembled like a leaf. He did not say a word and would not taik to reporters.

His counsel, Edmund E. Frice, pleaded that a day for an examination be set.

The Judge accordingly named next wednesday afternoon as the time. He had been a standard that a day for an examination be set.

The Judge accordingly named next wednesday afternoon as the time. He had been to the forbes this morning to see how Donovan fared.

The facts are all against him. He was caught red-handed, and yet when he was asked to resign in the station-house he refused to do so, and blustered about, saying that he was not guilty and that he would not resign until the courts had decided the case.

not resign until the courts had decided the case,
"Why, he even offered the bartender half of the money he had taken from the still if he would not tell on him. It looks pretty bad for Donovan, I can tall you. I never throught he was capable of such a thing."

No bondsman had appeared for Donovan up to noon, and he was looked up in the Tombs.

DID NOT FIX IT THIS TIME.

The Agent of the State Board of Pharmacy Charged with Blackmail. Matthew Mercer, agent of the State Board of Pharmacy, was very nervous when ar of Pharmacy, was very nervous when arraigned in the Tombs Polico Court this morning characed by Druggist Carmon, of 223 Grand street, with being in collusion with Dumbar D'Neill, a sub-sgent of the Board, for the purpose of blackmail.

Mercer called at Dr. Carmon's drug store and charged Clerk George Weisman with preparing prescriptions without a license. He said he would have to report the matter to the Board, but, the clerk declares, said he would send around O'Neill, who could "Ix" it for him.
